

Relational Needs Questionnaire

Name: _____

Date _____

While we all have relational needs, the priority of those needs is different for each person. Your greatest need may be for affection, while your partner's greatest need may be security. One child may have an acute need for comfort, but another sibling's greatest need may be encouragement.

An important aspect of learning to love others is taking the time to know them and to discover what their priority needs are.

This questionnaire will help you assess your most important relational needs. Answer the questions, and then score the questionnaire to identify which needs you perceived as most important.

Instructions: Respond to these questions by placing the appropriate number beside each item:
